THE RICHMOND COUNTY COURTHOUSE
Augusta, Richmond County, Georgia

Owner: Richmond County.

Date of Erection: About 1811.

Architect: Middleton.

Present Condition: Fair.

Number of Stories: Three stories plus low attic and cupola above;
wing added. Faces North on to Greene Street.

Materials of Construction: Gray stucco on brick scored to represent stone joints. Cast iron columns in porticos support wood entablature painted to look like stone. Tin covered hip roof.

Other Existing Records: County; small photo in Meadow Gardens shows original structure without wings.

Additional Data: The back almost exactly like front except for omission of pediment. The central block original. Two wings of more recent date. Gray stucco recently put on. Roof burned some years ago and original cupola and balustrade above cornice have been rebuilt with tin facing; the cupola differs from the original because of the clock faces obstructing and cutting off columns.

Interior original stairway in central hall has been removed and some renovating done, but the door trim with elaborate heads remain intact.
